

50 DAYS OF UNBROKEN
PRAYER
FOR THE TURKIC WORLD

DAY 25: APRIL 29

Turkish Cypriot

There are 420,000 Turkish Cypriots living primarily in Cyprus and the United Kingdom. Less than 0.22% of these are followers of Jesus. They live on the northern section of the island of Cyprus, located in the Mediterranean Sea, just south of Turkey.

As the descendants of Turkish Ottoman invaders who conquered Cyprus in the 16th century, the Turkish Cypriot proudly maintain Turkish customs, traditions, and language (Turkish).

Almost all Turkish Cypriots are Muslims who follow Islamic beliefs and practices. They believe death is the start of a new life, with the dead awaiting resurrection to heaven or hell, depending on the way he/she lived life on earth. Many believe in the "evil eye," the idea that someone can be harmed just by being looked at.

Scripture

"For God gave us a spirit not of fear but of power and love and self-control."

2 Timothy 1:7
